

The Word is what is powerful and effective in our marriage, and we speak these scriptures over us:

2 Cor 4:18 _____ and _____ fix their eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Romans 12:2 _____ and _____ do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but we are transformed by the renewing of our mind. We are able to test and approve what God's will is--his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Psalm 119:18 _____ and _____'s eyes are open and we see wonderful things in God's instructions.

Psalm 119:37 _____ and _____'s eyes turn away from worthless things; our lives are preserved according to God's word.

Eph 1:18 The eyes of _____ and _____'s hearts are enlightened in order that we may know the hope to which the Lord has called us, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

Heb 12:2 _____ and _____ fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Num 12:7-8 _____ and _____ are faithful in all God's house. We speak with the Lord face to face, clearly and not in riddles; we see the form of the LORD.

Eph 5:14 _____ and _____ are awake and risen from the dead and Christ shines on us.

Psalm 2:2 _____ and _____ turn their ears to wisdom and apply their hearts to understanding.

James 1:19 _____ and _____ are quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry...we are rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and we humbly accept the word planted in them, which saves us.

James 1:22 _____ and _____ do not merely listen to the word; we do what it says.

Gen 2:24 _____ and _____ have left their father and mother and been united to each other, and they have become one flesh.

Matt 19:6 _____ and _____ are no longer two but one. Therefore what God has joined together let no man separate.

Deut 24:5 _____ and _____ are free to be at home and bring happiness to each other.

1 Cor 7:3 _____ fulfills his marital duty to _____ and likewise _____ fulfills her marital duty to _____. _____'s body does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, _____'s body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife. We do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that we may devote ourselves to prayer.

Eph 5:22 _____ submits to her husband as to the Lord. _____ loves _____ just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church ... _____ loves _____ as his own body. _____ loves _____ as he loves himself and _____ respects _____.

1 Cor 13:4-8 _____ and _____ have a Rhema understanding of love according to God's word and we choose to walk in love in everything we do. We are patient, we are kind. We do not envy, we do not boast, we are not proud. We are not rude, we are not self-seeking, we are not easily angered, we keep no record of wrongs. We do not delight in evil but we rejoice with the truth. We always protect, always trust, always hope, always persevere. We never fail when we walk in love. Thank you Jesus that your word cannot and does not turn up void, but accomplishes that which it says it will.
