

PRAYER IS...

PRAYER = interacting with God and exchanging your thoughts, ideas and desires for HIS—this involves being attentive to what God has to say and opening your heart to receive His truth

PRAYER = receiving a divine impartation of faith from God

PRAYER = access we've been given to The Father's heart through the blood of His son, Jesus

PRAYER = intimate fellowship with God that can only take place through His son and the gift of His Holy Spirit

PRAYER = communicating with God and receiving HIS thoughts, images, desires and emotions

PRAYER = bringing the supernatural will of God into the natural by agreeing with HIS WORD and speaking it forth — "Amen" means: "So be it!"

PRAYER = speaking forth GOD's desires from His Word (the bible) and not your own

PRAYER = calling forth the manifestation of what is already yours in Christ according to scriptures by believing it in your heart and declaring it is already yours in Christ as the bible says it is!

PRAYER = exercising the God-given authority we've been given through Christ on this earth over every situation and circumstance—speaking out The Name of Jesus that is life and victory!

PRAYER = bringing heaven to earth

PRAYER = close, personal contact with God Himself

PRAYER = coming into agreement with Jesus Christ (The Word) who is in constant intercession on our behalf, sitting at the right hand of The Father in heaven—as we agree, power is released from the supernatural into the natural to cause things we are experiencing to be as The Word says they should be: (ie: joy, peace, health, wealth, highly favored, redeemed time)

PRAYER = the practice of the presence of God

PRAYER = a proven, active and prevailing reality

PRAYER = the greatest resource and most powerful weapon a Christian has in this life
